

Financial Policy for Fernandez Dentistry

- Payment for routine dental care is due at time of appointment.
- If you have dental insurance, our front desk coordinator will provide the courtesy of filing your claim, but you are responsible for payment of your portion on day of appointment.
- Our front desk coordinator also will send any predetermination requests to your insurance company so you will know exactly what will be covered before any treatment is started.
- We accept Visa, Mastercard, Discover, American Express, personal check and cash for all payments:
 1. An 8% discount for payment of entire treatment in advance with cash or check for charges of $1000.00 or more. This discount only applies if you don't have insurance benefits.
 2. A 5% discount for payment of entire treatment in advance with credit card for charges of $1000.00 or more. This discount only applies if you don't have insurance benefits.
 3. We are offering no interest loans and extended payment plans through Care Credit. Ask our front desk coordinator for more details.
- For any procedure requiring an extended period of time to complete (crowns, bridges, partials), 50% of fee is required at first appointment and remainder is required on completion of treatment.
- Patient is responsible for any collection and/or legal charges incurred up to 35%.

PAYMENT IS DUE IN FULL AT TIME OF TREATMENT UNLESS PRIOR ARRANGEMENTS HAVE BEEN APPROVED.
